

Inverses

Alecia Wright

March 25, 2019

1

To find the multiplicative inverse of a number, we would need to verify that  $a$  and  $m$  are both prime with a common gcd of 1. For example,  $32 = 12 \pmod{10}$  because  $32 - 12 = 20$  and 10 will divide into 20.